
Week 18

How does Tai Chi prepare us for today's world?

It grounds us to the earth with correct posture and a clear mind free of distraction. It is practiced quietly without words or mental activity other than the movements which are gentle and circular. It calms the mind. The practice of this art is constant.

Gerard Menzel

